I assume you mean division or office. The spreadsheet template sent by HQ, which you see nearly completed on Sharepoint, did not include a column for that info. However, I can fill out Column E (currently blank) with that division/office info and send you a modified copy.

I'd rather not modify the principal version on Sharepoint in that manner, since I was chided by HQ for modifying the columns (to remove extraneous info) when I sent it to them on June 16.

Thanks -MK

Martin,

How do you tell which office is responsible for the various web sites on the spreadsheet?
